To EFIM.

"Rok"

Legation [MISSIYA] Attaché MOROZOV, Georgij Mikhajlovich (henceforth "~~ROLAND~~" []) is being recalled home. In April [B% 1944] [1] you reported that he showed himself to be self-centred, a man of stone [KAMENNYM CHELOVEKOM], reserved in his manner, friendly only with ALEKSANDR [1] and VLASOV, [and when] [a] associating with foreigners disclosed many things to them. In his private capacity "~~ROLAND~~" had made friends with a local journalist, ALEXANDER [ALEKSANDER], often visiting him [,] and you supposed that [B% ALEXANDER] was skilfully making use of him. From that time no information has been received from you about "~~ROLAND~~".

Taking the maximum care and observing secrecy [KONSPIRATSIYA], arrange for secret surveillance of him

Distribution

/ "Rek" up to the time of his departure from CANBERRA. Report with whom "~~ROLAND~~" is leaving and what opportunities you have for organising surveillance of him on the journey.

/ "Rek" At all events bear in mind that "~~ROLAND~~" is a worker [RABOTNIK]. Telegraph reply quickly.

T.N.: [a] Inserted by translator.

Comments: [i] I.e. two years before the date of this message.

[ii] Probably an error for ALEKSANDROV, who was Counsellor in the Soviet Legation in CANBERRA during VLASOV's tour as Minister.
